School District Honors Longtime Employees

Tuesday, 22 May 2012

{audio}/images/stories/mp3/120522_school_honorees.mp3{/audio}

Jennifer Canfield/KMXT

The Kodiak Island Borough School District paid tribute to 11 employees last night for their decades of service to Kodiak's students. The district recognized eight employees for 25 years of service and three more for 30 years of service. KMXT's Jennifer Canfield produced this sound collage of Assistant Superintendent Marilyn Davidson honoring each of the employees at last night's regular school board meeting.

The district also recognized eight employees who were retiring.

25 Years:

Kodiak
High School Teacher Darcy
Glagolich

Port
Lions School
Aide/Custodian Georgia Kramer

Kodiak
Middle School Teacher
Mary Linscheid

District-wide Educational Technologist Laurene Madsen

North

Star Elementary
School Teacher Karen Majdic

East
Elementary School Teacher
Susan Patrick

Community Schools Staff Member Robert Reed

North
Star Elementary
School Teacher Sharon Taylor

30 Years:

North
Star Elementary
School Principal Janel Keplinger

Kodiak
High School Teacher Jim
Lambert

Central Services Secretary Marci Stelzer

Retiring:

Kodiak
Middle School Teacher
George Griffing

Kodiak
Middle School Teacher
Patricia Griffing

Kodiak
High School Teacher David
Morgan

East
Elementary School Teacher
Judith Phillips

Kodiak
Middle School Teacher
Kathy Rostad

Maintenance Secretary Barbara Snodgrass

East
Elementary School Aide
Terri Springer

Kodiak
Middle School Custodian
Edmundo Tapia