Coming up

this week: The Snow Crab catch may be slashed next season; Sheldon Jackson College may be gone, but its salmon legacy lives on; and how much arm-twisting was involved in the birth of processor quota shares? All that and how they used to do it in Bristol Bay. Also, Rubber Fish, Rainforest Wild, and have fisheries worldwide reached The End of The Line? We had help from KUCB's Anne Hillman, who's back from vacation; Margie Bauman of the Alaska Journal of Commerce; the Deck Boss blog; KDLG's Adam Kane, and KCAW's Emily Schwing.
