Its not easy to grow things on a rock and any Kodiak gardener will tell you the same. That's why the Kodiak Garden club is eager to share their growing accomplishments by hosting a garden tour this weekend. Unless you've been on one in Kodiak before, you may need to re-think your image of what a garden tour is like.

KMXT's Diana Gish spoke with Kodiak Garden Club president Patty Holmes to find out more:

-- (Kodiak Gardens 5:00 "...worth the time and effort."

The Kodiak Garden Club's annual tour takes place this weekend, August 8th and 9th. Saturday's tour is in the city of Kodiak and out to Monashka Bay . Sunday's tour is of gardens in Bell's Flats. Both tours start at 1 pm and end at 4. Maps to the gardens are available at the Kodiak High School parking lot beginning at noon on Saturday.
