The Kodiak High School Class of 1989 is celebrating it's 20 year reunion on the rock this weekend. One of those in town for the event is singer/songwriter Julia Francis. Francis made an appearance this morning on KMXT and brought along her guitar for a live session on the morning show with Mike Murray.

(Julia Francis "...bridge to somewhere.")

That was Julia Francis, former Kodiak resident and a member of the Kodiak High School Class of 1989.
