On this week's show, the salmon return to Lower Cook Inlet has been strong this year; Pelican's lone processor stays closed for the second summer in a row; and the importance of the cold storage facility in Wrangell. Also, EVOS interest payments are coming, and ASMI is teaming up with Pacific Fishing Magazine and Alaska Airline in a photocontest. All that and do you have RSW? We had help this week from KBBI's Marcia Lynn in Homer, KSTK's Lisa Phu in Wrangell, KDLG's Mike Mason in Dillingham, and Deck Boss Blogger Wesley Loy in Anchorage.
