

Power Outage Affecting Chiniak, Pasagshak

Friday, 02 May 2008

Service Should Resume Today

Residents of Pasagshak and Chiniak are still without power after two remote utility poles came crashing to the ground around 11:30 last night.

KEA's Darren Scott says the poles cannot be reached from the road, which is hampering repair work. His crews estimate power to be restored later today.