

Nearly $6,000 Stolen from Larsen Bay City Office

Tuesday, 16 October 2012

Jay Barrett/KMXT

The Alaska State Troopers are investigating a sizable theft of cash in Larsen Bay. The troopers say that a Larsen Bay city official reported the theft of $5,906 to them on October 5th. The money was missing from the city offices. The troopers announced the theft Monday. Larsen Bay is a community of about 90 on the west side of Kodiak Island, 60 miles southwest of Kodiak City.

The investigation continues, but troopers have determined the theft occurred sometime between August 30th and October 1st.