Coming up this week, a plan to shut down the largest herring fishery in the state has been turned aside by an advisory committee, the members of the Cook Inlet Salmon Task Force have been named, and how salmon are like money in the bank. All that, plus: PETA mourns the loss of saltwater bass. We had help from KDLG's Mike Mason in Dillingham, KDLL's Shaylon Cochran in Kenai, and CoastAlaska's Ed Schoenfeld in Sitka.
