

Kodiak Police Seek Help With Manhunt

Monday, 19 November 2012

Jay Barrett/KMXT

The Kodiak Police Department has put out an all-points bulletin for a man wanted on a variety of drug charges. In a release from the police this morning, the department is seeking the public's help in locating Sabino Abrego, who they say is known to be in the Kodiak area.

He is 5-foot-4-inches tall, 165 pounds, with black hair and brown eyes.

He is wanted for charges of second, third and fourth degree misconduct involving a controlled substance.

The police say the 28-year-old Abrego is aware he's a wanted person and they advise citizens not to try and apprehend him themselves. The KPD can be reached at 486-8000, or via text at 486-T-I-P. Anonymous reports can be made through the Crime Stoppers Hotline at 486-3113, or their secure website.