The Kodiak Chamber of Commerce is putting on its first "Santa Run" tomorrow (Saturday). It's a 5-kilometer fun run, with, as the chamber's Joe Bailor says, a holiday twist.

He encourages participants to dress up as Santa, Mrs. Claus, elves, reindeer or any other Christmas character and come out and run for charity. The $10 suggested donation will go to needy families this holiday season.

The Santa Run begins with registration tomorrow morning at 10 a.m. at the high school, and the 5-K run starts at 11 a.m.
