

North Star School Vandalized

Friday, 26 September 2008

Jay Barrett/KMXT

The Alaska State Troopers are investigating some vandalism at North Star Elementary School. The Trooper report says that late Monday night or early Tuesday morning that the school's north wall was peppered with over 25 paint balls.

No major damage was reported and the investigation continues.