

Singer-Songwriter Hears Call of Alaska

Friday, 24 May 2013

{audio}/images/stories/mp3/130524.singer_marion_call.mp3{/audio}

Brianna Gibbs/KMXT

The Kodiak Arts Council will wrap up its performing arts season with an artist that didn't have to travel far to get here. Juneau-based singer songwriter Marian Call wasn't born and raised in Alaska, though she has spent the past 10 years in the last frontier, and has the songbook to prove it. KMXT's Brianna Gibbs caught up with Call and learned more about her Alaska-inspired music.