

Only Incumbents File So Far for City Offices

Thursday, 15 August 2013

Jay Barrett/KMXT

The ballot for the City of Kodiak elections is looking just as sparse as the borough's, with just the incumbents having filed as of this morning.

Mayor Pat Branson has signed up to run for another two-year term, while Councilmen Charlie Davidson and John Whiddon will both be seeking another three-year term.

The city's filing deadline is, like the borough's, this afternoon at 4:30 p.m.

We'll have the final candidate list for both on KMXT.org as soon as they're released.