Volleyball

The Kodiak High School Bears volleyball team remains unbeaten in the Northern Lights Conference after sweeping Wasilla here over the weekend. The Bears are now 8-and-0 in the NLC.

On Friday Hannah Wandersee had nine kills to lead the Bears to 25-13, 25-19 and 25-17 wins in the middle school gym. Kodiak repeated on Saturday, winning 25-16, 25-11 and 25-17.

The Bears, who are 13-0 overall, not counting tournament games, will play in the Service-Diamond Tournament in Anchorage this week.

Swimming and Diving

The Bears' swimming and diving team both took first at the Palmer Valley Invite over the weekend.

The Kodiak boys racked up 121 points, 70 more than runner-up Colony, while the girls had 77 points, 16 more than second place Palmer. Each had four individual wins.

Blake James won the 200-yard freestyle and the 100 breaststroke, while Dyton Schauff won the 100 backstroke, and Nicholas Lincoln took the 200 individual medley.

Schauff, James and Lincoln, along with Nathan Schauff won the 200 medley relay.

Tahna Lindquist won the 100 freestyle and the 500 freestyle, while Ila Hughes took the 50 freestyle and the 100 freestyle.

The two, along with Ila Macinko and Brittany Horne won the 200 freestyle relay.
