

Santa Spreads Christmas Cheer With Guard's Help

Tuesday, 10 December 2013

Children in Port Lions, Alaska, receive gifts from Santa and elf Erin Simone as part of on going outreach from the Coast Guard to the remote villages of Kodiak Island Dec. 2, 2013. The Coast Guard and Coast Guard Spouses' Association have provided services such as eye exams and holiday cheer to the remote communities of Kodiak Island and more than 240 children since 1974.
