

Way Back in Kodiak - Corked at Karluk

Thursday, 02 January 2014

{audio}/images/stories/WayBackKodiak/WayBackKodiak_Corked_at_Karluk.mp3{/audio}

In 1943, Karluk villagers were transferred thousands of acres of land and water to create the only Indian reservation in Kodiak's history. In this episode, discover how a US Supreme Court case, local canners, village fishermen, and federal agencies responded to the creation of the controversial Karluk Reservation.