

Mirror Says 'Goodbye' to Klauss

Monday, 27 January 2014

{audio}/images/stories/mp3/nicole_klauss_two_way.mp3{/audio}

Brianna Gibbs/KMXT

After about two years with the Kodiak Daily Mirror, general assignment reporter Nicole Klauss has decided to say goodbye to the daily publication, and Kodiak. Klauss left Kodiak on Friday, but KMXT's Brianna Gibbs caught up with her before then to learn about her time in Kodiak and with the Mirror. Klauss will begin a new job in Washington State later this month reporting for the Ellensburg Daily Record.