The Alaska Seafood Marketing Institute announced the winners of its Alaska fishing families photo contest last week. More than 700 entries were submitted to the contest, which ran from January 1 to February 2. Winners were chosen for various categories, including Facebook favorite, best humor photo, best boat photo and best throwback photo, among others. The winners include submissions from all around the state, including Kodiak, and are featured online at photocontest.alaskaseafood.org.

In a press release from ASMI, the organization said the photo entries might be used for future marketing purposes worldwide, both online and in print.
